LONDON, January 23.

The King of Sardinia, Mantua, Parma, and Placentia, with the Title of King of Lombardy.

The Infant Don Philip, the Kingdom of Sardinia, to which is to be annexed the Iſland of Corſica, with the Country on one ſide of the Po.

His Majeſty's Snow the Grampus has taken a Spaniſh Ship near Viana on the Coaſt of Portugal, but being near the Shore, the Spaniards, conſiſting of Fifty Men, made their Eſcape in their Boat.

Yeſterday the Merchants went up to Weſtminſter and preſented their Petition, relating to the Loſſes they have ſuſtained by the Spaniſh Privateers, to both Houſes of Parliament; and 'tis ſaid it is to be heard at the Houſe of Commons next Wedneſday, and at the Houſe of Lords the Wedneſday following.

A Ship from Leghorn for London, with Fruit and Marble, is taken by the Spaniards, and carried into St. Sebaſtian's, and is ſuppoſed to be Capt. Trounce.

The Right Hon. the Houſe of Peers are adjourn'd 'till Tueſday next.

CHARLES-TOWN, April 17.

On Tuesday last return'd from her Cruise, the Hawk (Snow) Man of War, Capt. Bruce. And

The same Day sail'd over the Bar, with the Wind at S.E. the Young Eagle (Billander) Privateer, commanded by Capt Roose, on a Cruise against the Spaniards — Which shews that any Cruizer drawing about Eleven Feet, may get over our Bar with almost any Wind

We are inform'd that the Hawk Man of War, in her Cruise, spoke with Capt Snelling from Boston, ashore near Cape Roman Shoals.

We hear, that the Rye, Flamborough, Rose, and Swift Men of War, being already careen'd, will soon sail from this Port, the two former on a Cruise, and the latter for their respective Stations.

'THE care of the Plantations Abroad being committed to the Bishop of LONDON, as to Religious affairs, ' His Lordship conceiv'd it His Duty, among other things, to enquire, what Means are used for the instruction of our Slaves in the Christian Faith, and was seriously affected to find, when the Numbers are so prodigiously great, ' how small progress has been made, in a ' Christian Country, towards the delivering those poor ' Creatures from the Pagan darkness and Superstition, in ' which They were bred, and the making Them Partakers of the Light of the Gospel, and of the Blessings ' and Benefits belonging to it.' And particularly laments, ' That all Attempts towards it have been by too ' many industriously discourag'd and hinder'd.'

His Lordship therefore, in His Letters to the Masters and Mistresses of Families in the English Plantations Abroad, and to the Missionaries There, has in a very Ample and Nervous manner refuted the Objections, usually Suggested; and placed the Duty, and the Several Advantages of it, in the strongest point of Light. —— From the ' Greatness of the profit, that is received from Their Labours, ' His Lordship hopes, ' That all Christian Masters, Those especially who are possess'd of considerable ' Numbers, should also be at some small Expence in providing for the Instruction of those poor Creatures; And ' that Others, whose Numbers are less, and who dwell in ' the Same Neighbourhood, should join in the Expence of ' a Common Teacher for the Negroes belonging to Them.' —— His Lordship doubts not ' of the readiness of Every ' Missionary, in His own Parish, to promote and further a ' Work so Charitable to the Souls of Men, and so Agreeable to the great End and Design of his Mission.' —— He wou'd also hope, ' That the School Masters, in the several Parishes, might contribute Somewhat towards the ' carrying on this Work, by being ready to bestow upon ' it some of Their leisure time, especially on the Lord's-' Day, when both They and the Negroes are most at Liberty, and the Clergy are taken up with the Publick Duties of their Function.' ——

We are not Insensible, of how little weight such Names as Our's may be deem'd with some Gentlemen of The Establishment; But His LORDSHIP's Surely must give a certain force, emphasis and Reputation to Every Paragraph; And We think, We act as Men, as Christians, as Subjects, and especially as Ministers of JESUS CHRIST, if We take this opportunity of expressing our hearty concurrence with His Lordship; Applauding His Noble and Pious design, and recommending His LETTERS to all Families, who sustain the same Character and Denomination with Us; hoping it may awaken in Them a Religious concern for the instruction and Salvation of Negroes, under Their respective Charge, while We humbly Submit to the Wisdom of our Superiors, whether, and how far, ATTEMPTS of this Nature may be thought to deserve Their Publick protection, countenance, and sanction.
